

Your Responsibilities

Action Planning

Awareness

Make sure every employee has access to a copy of your health and safety legislation, and knows where to find it.

Review all communications that are made regarding fire safety, especially during inductions, quality of signage and on-going training

Confirm that all employees are aware of the main hazards that could affect safety in their areas of responsibility